

Blown Up in Paradise: A Florida Keys Mystery That Will Keep You on the Edge of Your Seat

Synopsis

When a bomb explodes on a charter boat in the Florida Keys, Sheriff Rick Ballard and his team are called in to investigate. The boat was carrying a group of tourists, and one person is killed in the blast. The rest of the passengers are injured, and Ballard must race against time to find the bomber before they strike again.

Ballard and his team soon discover that the bombing was not a random act of violence. The bomber had a specific target in mind, and they are determined to kill again. Ballard must use all of his skills and resources to track down the bomber and stop them before they can carry out their deadly plan.
