Writing a Main Character?

6 tips for your core cast

1. KNOW DRIVES
Examine your story scenario. What might this character want more than anything at your story's start?

2. USE SECONDARIES
How do secondary characters supply tension, contrast, drama and conflict, or affect motivations?

3. GIVE CHALLENGES
Challenges supply narrative suspense while also showing what characters are made of.

4. FIND STAKES
What do protagonists and antagonists risk, losing if they are unable to fulfill key goals?

5. DESCRIBE VIVIDLY
What is memorable about your main character's appearance? How do others perceive them?

6. USE INTERACTIONS
How can major interactions, even with a clerk in a store, show your main character's mettle, values?
