Materials You'll Need

- A large cardboard box
- A sharp knife or box cutter
- A ruler or measuring tape
- A pencil or pen
- Fabric scraps (optional)
- A hot glue gun (optional)

Instructions

1. Start by cutting out the bottom of the cardboard box. This will be the base of your cat bed.
2. Next, cut out two side panels from the cardboard box. These panels should be the same size and shape.
3. Attach the side panels to the base of the cat bed using hot glue or duct tape.
4. Once the side panels are attached, you can add a fabric cover to the cat bed (optional). To do this, simply cut out a piece of fabric that is large enough to cover the entire bed. Hot glue the fabric to the cardboard.
5. Finally, add a soft blanket or pillow to the cat bed for your cat to sleep on.

Tips

- You can use any size or shape of cardboard box to make a cat bed. Just be sure that the box is large enough for your cat to fit comfortably inside.
- If you don't have any fabric scraps, you can use old clothes, towels, or even newspaper to cover the cat bed.
- You can also add other features to your cat bed, such as a scratching post or a toy box.

Making an easy and cheap cat bed is a great way to save money and make your cat happy. With a little creativity, you can create a cozy and comfortable bed that your cat will love.
