

Permission to Love Trilussa: A Journey into the Heart and Mind of Italy's Master Sonneteer

Trilussa: A Son of Rome with a Universal Voice

In the heart of Rome, amidst the bustling streets and timeless ruins, emerged a voice that would echo through generations—the voice of Trilussa. Born Carlo Alberto Salustri in 1871, he adopted the pseudonym Trilussa, a playful inversion of "Salustri," and went on to become one of the most beloved poets in Italian history.
