My dearest Girl,

This moment I have set myself to copy some lines to you. I cannot proceed with any degree of content. I cannot write you a line or two and see of that will refresh in dismissing you from my mind for ever so short a time. When my Gard I can think of nothing else. The time is passed when I had power to advise and warn you against the unprosperous morning of my life. My love has made me selfish. I can not exist without you. I am fearful of every thing but seeing you again. My life seems to stop there. I see no further can I see dissolve me. I have a sensation at the present moment as though I was disappointed. I should be eternally reconciled without the hope of soon seeing you. I should be afraid to separate myself far from you. My sweet Fanny, will your heart never change? My love will it? I have no heart now to my love. Your note came in just here.
I cannot be happier with you. It is better than any happy of Paradise. I do not think me even in the world.
