About the Book

In Water Agencies As Hidden Government In California, acclaimed investigative journalist Darcy Olsen unveils the hidden world of water agencies, revealing their immense power and far-reaching impact beyond water management.

Through meticulous research and interviews with key players, Olsen uncovers the intricate web of relationships between water agencies, politicians, developers, and other special interests. She exposes how these agencies have amassed vast wealth and autonomy, often operating with little transparency or accountability.

Drawing on firsthand accounts and extensive documentation, Olsen meticulously demonstrates how water agencies have manipulated water rights, undermined environmental protections, and shaped the development of entire regions in California.

Water Agencies As Hidden Government In California is a groundbreaking exposé that will forever change the way we understand water politics and the hidden forces that shape our lives.
