Chapter 5: The Literary Bus Stop

Bus Stop

Lights are burning
In quiet rooms.
Where lives go on
Resembling ours.

The quiet lives
That follow us—
These lives we lead
But do not own—

Stand in the rain
So quietly
When we are gone,
So quietly . . .
And the last bus
Comes letting dark
Umbrellas out—
Black flowers, black flowers.

And lives go on.
And lives go on
Like sudden lights
At street corners.

Or like the lights
In quiet rooms
Left on for hours,
Burning, burning.
